Historie (Petr Uhlíř):

Křižanov – městečko na úpatí Českomoravské vysočiny.

První písemné dokumenty, ze kterých lze odvozovat historii kraje i míst v okolí Křižanova, jsou spojeny s kolonizací pohraničního pralesa mezi Čechami a Moravou koncem 12. a začátkem 13. století. To je období vlády českých králů Přemysla Otakara I. a Václava I. Z této doby pochází i první písemná zmínka o kostele. Je datována rokem 1239. Od pár desítek let později, roku 1297 je již Křižanov označován jako městys. Lze se tedy právem domnívat, že městečko i kostel mají svůj počátek daleko dříve.

Prvním historicky známým majitelem Křižanova byl Přibyslav, který dostal za své zásluhy od krále Václava I. část pohraničního pralesa mezi Čechami a Moravou (tzv. úděl). Tento úděl se rozprostíral od dnešního Havlíčkova Brodu po Velkou Bíteš. Za manželku si pan Přibyslav vzal dvorní dámu královny Kunhuty Sybilu. Za sídlo si zvolili Křižanov. Oba byli podle podání kronik velmi zbožní. Pan Přibyslav nenechal postavit v Křižanově žádný kostel. To by jistě kronikáři zapsali. Z tohoto faktu je možno odvodit, že původní románský kostel stál v Křižanově před tím, než přešel do vlastnictví pana Přibyslava.

Jak šel čas, měnili se majitelé i doba. Anežka ze Švábenic, Lhotští ze Ptení, Volf Křínecký z Ronova, Jiří Sieghard, Eleonora hraběnka z Oppersdorfa. To je jen několik jmen z dlouhé řady majitelů panství.

Kostel prošel za staletí své existence složitým stavebním vývojem. Kostelní budova měla svá období rozkvětu i úpadku. Podoba kostela, tak jak jej můžeme vidět dnes, je výsledkem barokní přestavby v roce 1678. V průběhu staletí byla lidskýma rukama a vůlí formována sice složitá, ale z každého úhlu pohledu krásná, až líbezná stavba, dominanta nejen městečka Křižanova.
